

Central Freshman Academy
Character Education

March

March 2-6

Word of the Week—Perseverance

To stick to ones purpose or aim; never giving up on

Meaning what one has set out to do. To continue to do something in spite of difficulties

Tuesday	Define word of the day and list synonyms and antonyms.
Wednesday	Describe positive and negative examples (people, places, experiences, etc.) of the word of the day.
Thursday	Use the word of the day in a well-developed sentence.
Friday	Video: How does this character show Perseverance? Perseverance Video Link Click the blue link.

March 9-13

Word of the Week—Sportsmanship

Meaning: Using fair play or sportsmanlike conduct. Fair play in games and sports

Tuesday	Define word of the day and list synonyms and antonyms.
Wednesday	Describe positive and negative examples (people, places, experiences, etc.) of the word of the day.
Thursday	Use the word of the day in a well-developed sentence.
Friday	How does the following video clip show a good example for sportsmanship? Sportsmanship video link

March 16-20

Word of the Week—Self-Respect

Meaning: Respect for oneself, which is indicated by their behavior, speech, and dress

Tuesday	Define word of the day and list synonyms and antonyms.
Wednesday	Describe positive and negative examples (people, places, experiences, etc.) of the word of the day.
Thursday	Use the word of the day in a well-developed sentence.
Friday	Write down or discuss one way you have shown this character trait this week. If you have not shown this character trait, write down ways that you could.

March 30-April 3

Word of the Week—Independence

Meaning: The condition of being independent; freedom

Tuesday	Define word of the day and list synonyms and antonyms.
Wednesday	Describe positive and negative examples (people, places, experiences, etc.) of the word of the day.
Thursday	Use the word of the day in a well-developed sentence.
Friday	Think and write about a time you wished you had more independence? Tell why independence was so important during that time.